Parental Blame and the PDA Society of Autism.

This report presents the findings of a survey of 1016 parents and carers of PDA children. The report centres parents' and carers' voices and experiences throughout. 88% of parents/carers completing the survey said that they had felt blamed for some aspect of their PDA child's presentation or "lack of progress". (2023.)

Jessica Kingsley Publishers, London.

Helping Your Child with PDA Live a Happier Life.

Drawing on the author's personal experience of parenting a child with PDA, this insightful and informative guide offers strategies and tips for all aspects of daily life, including sensory issues, education and negotiation. (2021.)
